

Relationship, Structure, and the Conditions for Real Love

Source bundle note

This placeholder PDF is included so the local site archive has a working download route for relationship_packet_public_facing_3page.pdf.

Replace this file with the production release PDF before public deployment.

Live brief summary:

A concise public-facing brief on why a bond can matter deeply and still become unstable when it is made to carry work that belongs elsewhere. It closes by outlining the conditions of a healthier relational model.

Deployment reminder

The site source package is system-first and link-safe, but this file is not the final public brief. It is a deployment placeholder for the missing production asset path supplied in the site inventory.
